Dear Mr. Wang,

I am pleased to inform you that I have nominated you to the United States Naval Academy.

Among the hundreds of remarkable young Floridians who applied this year, your academic excellence, extracurricular involvement and sincere desire to serve our country set you apart from other applicants. You and your family should take great pride in this accomplishment.

The United States Naval Academy will now decide whether to offer you an appointment. You should be notified of this decision in the coming months.

Again, congratulations on receiving a nomination. I wish you the best of luck in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Marco Rubio
United States Senator
